In compliance with articles 3 and 34 of the Italian Constitution, the University works to ensure that the full exercising of the right to study is not hindered by economic or social obstacles and that commitment and merit are continuously acknowledged and duly rewarded.

University Statute, Orientation Principles, Art. 2 para. 1

For A.Y. 2012/2013, the University of Bologna has increased the funds available for the right to study by 10%. A total of 22 million Euros are allocated mainly to:

- full or partial student exemptions according to merit and income (offered to around 14,000 students a year);
- full exemption from tuition fees for students obtaining a maximum score in their high school leaving certificate (100 with honours);
- full exemption for students graduating according to the exam schedule with a grade of 110/110: for students second degree programme students with a first cycle degree completed in the summer session with maximum grades;
- grants for part-time work contracts: 2,594 worth 1,150 Euros each for contracts signed with students selected according to merit and income, for a total amount of 2.9 million Euros;
- grants to outstanding students: 180 worth 2,500 Euros each, for a total amount of 450,000 Euros (including 15 for international students);
- study grants for students in conditions of hardship: 104 worth 2,000 Euros each;
- exemptions for international students: the Alma Mater allocates more than 200,000 Euros for 114 grants destined for the exemption of tuition fees.

University Statute, Orientation Principles, Art. 2 para. 2a

The University of Bologna offers a broad, diversified programme catalogue that considers the needs of society: this educational heritage is supported by the 33 Departments and 11 Schools. The international nature of the teaching programme is also confirmed by the Alma English project, unique of its kind in Italy, which guarantees the certified knowledge of the English language free of charge.

UNIVERSITY LINGUISTIC CENTRE
The CLA provides training and language skills assessment to both students and staff of the University of Bologna.

UNIVERSITY LIBRARY SYSTEM
With 58 libraries providing 77 service points, the system offers more than 5,000 workstations for study and research and access to more than 500 databases.

COLLEGIO SUPERIORE
This is the University institution that promotes student merit from admission onwards, providing highly qualified and particularly inter-disciplinary learning programmes.

CULTURAL ACTIVITIES AND SERVICES
Every year more than 400 extra-curricular activities are offered, many in collaboration with public and/or local institutions, targeting both students and the local community. These include meetings with authoritative personalities of the cultural and scientific global environment, and support of social projects.

UNIVERSITY MUSEUM NETWORK
A coordinated network of the 15 museums (including the Palazzo Poggi Museum) protecting and promoting the University’s historical and artistic assets, facilitating their educational value.

Alma Mater Studiorum – Università di Bologna is a multi-campus university based in Bologna, Cesena, Forlì, Ravenna, and Rimini.

University Statute, Constituent Principles, Art. 1 para. 2

Since 1989 the Alma Mater Studiorum – the first of its kind among Italian universities - has had a Multicampus structure: the campuses at Cesena, Forlì, Ravenna and Rimini operate along with Bologna. Each Campus is an integrated part of its host city, and has its own structures and services for teaching as well as cultural, sports and other leisure and social activities. Each campus has Schools, Departments and Local Organisational Units. Each Campus coordinates the services and initiatives to support teaching and research, liaising actively and organically with public and private stakeholders, thus representing an essential driving force for local social and economic growth.

THE UNIVERSITY OF BOLOGNA’S PARTNERSHIPS AROUND THE WORLD
Aware of its own international dimension by history and vocation, this University undertakes to consolidate and increase the internationalisation of its scientific and learning programmes and its organisation. For this purpose, it promotes mobility and cooperation among universities from different Countries, dialoguing with the most qualified international scientific and cultural institutions.

University Statute, Constituent Principles, Art. 1 para. 8

The University of Bologna has always promoted interdisciplinary and intercultural dialogue, investing skills and resources in the international, multi-cultural dimension of education, research and services. The quality of its research, the grounding of its graduates and the international reputation of its professors are just some of the most frequently acknowledged results.

CHINA AND BRAZIL

The University of Bologna hosts one of Italy’s most active branches of the Confucius Institute, and was recognised as the best of 2012. Local relations of the more than 700 Chinese students at Bologna are supported by the “Collegio di Cina” Association. The University was chosen by the Brazilian Government as national contact for the Project Science without Borders, involving 11 Universities, the National Research Council (CNR), Telecom Italia. In 2012 it coordinated the arrival of 450 scholarship students, aiming to welcome 6,000 scholarship students to Italy in 4 years.

INSTITUTE OF ADVANCED STUDIES

The Institute provides the tools and means to host visiting professors and young international scholars in Bologna in order to contribute to the dissemination of new ideas and the exchange of knowledge. The Institute supports the participation of students from other countries in the PhD programmes running at the University of Bologna.

Bologna is one of the top European universities for participation in the Erasmus Mundus programmes. It promotes and coordinates European networks for the management of Joint programmes.
Objectives and tasks of the University are pursued through the responsible contribution of all the university community members, on the basis of their own skills: students, professors, researchers and technical-administrative personnel. A primary value of the entire community is the respect of the individual’s fundamental rights, which the University undertakes to promote and protect under all circumstances.

University Statute, Constituent Principles, Art. 1 para. 5

The recognition of merit and excellence is a priority criterion guiding the University’s cultural, financial and organisational choices and strategies; in this way, the University promotes and rewards the commitment and quality of results achieved by students, professors, researchers and technical-administrative personnel.

University Statute, Constituent Principles, Art. 1 para. 7

In its staff policies and in implementing the principles of its Statute, the University undertakes to enhance the skills and professional experience of the people working in its facilities, and strives for the recognition of effort and merit. The University promotes the balanced growth of all members of the teaching staff, at the same time ensuring a equitable relationship with the service staff.

Recent recruitment processes have marked a more balanced distribution of gender, in line with the promotion of equal opportunities in all areas of academic life. Those recently employed in researcher positions are also helping to significantly reduce the average age of the teaching staff.

DISABILITY

The University pays special attention to people with disabilities. In addition to the Disabled Students’ Service, it runs projects focusing on inclusion, professional socialisation and awareness raising on issues linked to disability.
The autonomy of the University - principle and expression of the university community - is expressed in regulative, organisational, financial and managerial terms, in conformity with the Italian law and this Statute. The autonomy of the University is a guarantee of the freedom of learning, teaching and research.
