Last update: January 2017
The University of Bologna offers a variety of excellent, internationally recognised programmes. Students are given the opportunity to develop their knowledge and skills in a wide range of subjects and to gain access to high quality teaching.

International Programmes

- Economics of Tourism - CLET, Curriculum International
- Economics and Finance - CLEF (Bologna)
- Business and Economics - CLABE (Bologna, also available at the School of Economics, Management, and Statistics)

All programmes are taught in English unless marked with the opportunity to develop their knowledge and skills in an internationally recognised programme. Students are given the chance to complete their degree in other European universities, through an extensive network of partner universities. Programmes lead to a joint degree or a single degree, depending on the agreement between the universities. Universal standards are taken into account in the establishment of ministerial procedure. Joint, dual and combined degree issue may be conditional to partner universities signature of the agreements.
