----------------	---

As of 1 January 2012, the rules governing validity and use of certificates within the Italian Public Administration have changed. Public offices can no longer accept and request certificates containing information that the Public Administration already knows. Only self-certifications will be accepted. These provisions do not apply to certificates containing information that the Italian Public Administration has not acquired yet (e.g. Declaration of Value – certificate of equivalence – for foreign qualifications).

Article 1 – General information

1. Pursuant to Decree no. 270 of 22 October 2004 of the Italian Ministry of Education, University and Research, for academic year 2026-2027, Alma Mater Studiorum – Università di Bologna, Administrative office of Bologna, will run a Summer School in “ILIO-Italian Literature International Observatory”.
2. The Summer School has been set up on the proposal of the Department of Classical Philology and Italian Studies (FICLIT) and in cooperation with FAM-Fondazione Alma Mater.
3. The Summer School, which will last for five days, will be taught in Italian. It awards 6 University educational credits (CFU) is aimed at providing final-year undergraduate students, master’s students, and PhD candidates in the humanities with the skills necessary to conduct research in the field of Italian literature from an international perspective, as well as to work in the teaching of Italian language and literature abroad and/or to international students enrolled in international programmes in Italy. The programme addresses topics including: the reception of contemporary Italian literature abroad; the comparison between the Italian and the international canon; different approaches to teaching Italian literature in diverse linguistic and cultural contexts; the translation of modern and contemporary literary texts; and the dynamics of the publishing system that promotes Italian literature internationally.
4. The Summer School is a restricted-access postgraduate course.
The selection procedure will not take place unless a minimum number of applicants is reached.
The Programme will not run unless a minimum number of students is reached and the minimum budget requirements are met. If this is not the case, the Ufficio Master will refund enrolment fees (excluding stamp duty) in accordance with the methods prescribed by the University.
The selection procedure participation fee (€10.00) will not be refunded, not even in the case that the selection procedure cannot take place.
5. The certificate of successful completion of the Summer and the awarding of 6 CFUs are conditional on:
  - paying the tuition fees in full;
  - reaching the minimum attendance percentage of 80 %;
  - passing the final examination.
6. Transfer from a Summer/Winter School to another or to any other programme offered by the University is not permitted.

7. The course doesn't fall within the type of courses for which exemption from the registration fee and university contributions is provided (D. Lgs 68/2012, art.9, comma 8).

Article 2 – Admission requirements

1. The course is reserved for:
  - students enrolled in the final year of a Bachelor's or Master's degree programme in the humanities;
  - graduates holding a Bachelor's and/or Master's degree awarded pursuant to Ministerial Decree (DM) 270/04 (or first- and/or second-cycle degrees obtained under the previous regulations, DM 509/99 and the former university system) in the following disciplinary areas/degree classes: L-10; L-11; LM-14; LM-39;
  - graduates holding Bachelor's and/or Master's degrees obtained abroad in the above-mentioned disciplinary areas and deemed suitable for admission to the course;
  - graduates from other degree classes or academic curricula may also be considered, provided they are regarded as relevant for admission to the Summer School;
  - proficiency in the Italian language at B2 level (certified either by Italian language examinations taken within the applicant's previous degree programme or by an official language proficiency certificate).

The call provides for access reserved for students from Partner Universities as provided for in the from the multilateral inter-institutional agreement Erasmus+, Prot. n. 0018981 del 02/02/2026.

2. Applicants who, at the time of registering for selection, do not hold the necessary qualifications and meet the applicable requirements yet, can participate in the selection on a conditional basis. If they are selected, they will be able to enrol subject to sending proof of the relevant qualifications and requirements to the Ufficio Master (master@unibo.it). Successful applicants who fail to obtain the necessary qualifications and meet the applicable requirements before the enrolment end date will not be able to enrol.

Article 3 – Registering for selection and submitting the documentation

1. Applicants must register for selection before 11:59 p.m. on 16/04/2026 by logging into the website www.unibo.it/Portale/Guida/StudentiOnline.
2. To register for selection and pay the €10.00 fee, see the operational instructions available in the ANNEXES section of the Programme data sheet. Failure to pay the selection procedure participation fee (€10.00) will result in the rejection of the application.
3. The documentation to be submitted for selection purposes is specified in the instructions. The following documents must also be submitted:
  - a) Curriculum Vitae;

- b) For international students: a list of Italian language and culture examinations taken at their home universities.

Only for candidates who have obtained their qualification abroad, any other documentation deemed useful for assessing the eligibility of the qualification possessed (Diploma Supplement, Declaration of Value, etc.), together with the translated and legalised qualification (the translation is not necessary for qualifications in English, French or Spanish).

Article 4 – Other information concerning admission and delivery of the documentation

1. The University of Bologna accepts no responsibility for the loss of misdirected communications as a result of the applicant providing a wrong address, or failing to notify or delaying notification of changes to the address given in their online application, or for any issues of the postal service or other issues however attributable to third parties, unexpected events or force majeure.
2. All applicants are admitted to the entrance exam on a conditional basis – the University of Bologna will subsequently proceed to reject any applicants who do not meet the admission requirements laid down in this Call for Applications.
3. In the event of false declarations in the documentation submitted by an applicant, which are relevant for enrolment purposes, without prejudice to the penalties laid down in Article 76 of Presidential Decree no. 445 of 28 December 2000, such applicant will no longer be able to enrol and will not be entitled to a refund of the fees paid. Those who make false declarations will be liable for damages.
