As of 1 January 2012, the rules governing validity and use of certificates within the Italian Public Administration have changed. Public offices can no longer accept and request certificates containing information that the Public Administration already knows. Only self-certifications will be accepted. These provisions do not apply to certificates containing information that the Italian Public Administration has not acquired yet (e.g. Declaration of Value – certificate of equivalence – for foreign qualifications).

Article 1 – General information

1. Pursuant to Decree no. 270 of 22 October 2004 of the Italian Ministry of Education, University and Research, for academic year 2026-2027, Alma Mater Studiorum – Università di Bologna, Administrative office of Bologna, will run a Summer School in “Climate Change: Indigenous Perspectives and Artistic Utopias”.
2. The Summer School has been set up on the proposal of the Department of the Arts and in cooperation with FAM – Fondazione Alma Mater.
3. The Summer School, which will last for 5 days, will be taught in English language. It awards 3 University educational credits (CFU) and has as its learning outcome to explore pressing issues related to climate change and the role of artists in proposing new social and economic dynamics that can have social and economic effects. Through an interdisciplinary approach involving professors from usually distant academic fields such as art history, economics and biology, a speculative approach will be developed, aimed at understanding the dramatic environmental condition that has taken shape with the emergence of the Anthropocene. In particular, the educational project moves from a reconsideration of cultural practices as a driver of social processes based on forms of public engagement, aimed at developing scenarios of futuristic societies that are at least as desirable as they are practicable.
4. The Summer School is a restricted-access postgraduate course.
The selection procedure will not take place unless a minimum number of applicants is reached.
The Programme will not run unless a minimum number of students is reached and the minimum budget requirements are met. If this is not the case, the Ufficio Master will refund enrolment fees (excluding stamp duty) in accordance with the methods prescribed by the University.
The selection procedure participation fee (€10.00) will not be refunded, not even in the case that the selection procedure cannot take place.
