1.2 PhD programme tables

Additional information about doctoral positions, research topics, scholarships, specific requirements and assessment criteria are detailed in the PhD Programme Tables. Such Tables complement the Call for Applications and are available on the University website (select the PhD programme → “More Information” and then “PhD Programme Table”).

1.3 Covid-19 info

Due to the unpredictable nature of the evolution of the Covid-19 pandemic and in order to ensure continuity in teaching and research activities, during the first semester of the AY 2021/22, doctoral activities shall, if necessary, be carried out in blended modality, in presence and remotely.

Art. 2 – ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Applicants, regardless of age and citizenship status, can apply for the admission to the selection procedure if they have awarded at least one of the following degrees:

- Laurea Magistrale, Magistrale a ciclo unico or Laurea Specialistica (Master’s Degree);
- Laurea di Vecchio Ordinamento (pre-1999 reform);
- A Second Cycle Degree awarded by academic institutions part of AFAM (Alta Formazione Artistica e Musicale);
- A non-Italian Second Cycle Degree (Master’s Degree or Single Cycle Degree) awarded by an academic institution equivalent to the above mentioned degrees (letters a, b, c).

Applicants who are yet to obtain their Second Cycle Degree are admitted to the selection procedure on condition that they obtain their degree by no later than October, 31st 2021.

PhD candidates already enrolled at a PhD programme of cycle 37th at the University of Bologna, who benefit of a scholarship, cannot apply for the present call, for the same PhD programme they are attending to, unless they withdraw the previous scholarship by the deadline of the present call.

Art. 3 – HOW TO APPLY

3.1 Application procedures

The online application must be submitted by October 20th, 2021 h. 11:59pm (CEST).

There is no application fee to be paid.

Each applicant can apply for more than one PhD programme.

Applicants who intend to participate for more than one specific research topic for the same PhD programme must submit one application only, by uploading a specific research project for each topic of interest.

Applicants who intend to participate for more than one specific research topic for different PhD programmes must submit an application for each of the PhD programmes (one per PhD programme), by uploading the requested documents.

In order to submit the application, the applicant must:

1. Access Studenti Online and log in using their credentials or register by providing the required information. After registering applicants will receive their credentials, i.e. name.surname@studio.unibo.it. This will be the only email account (which will be activated upon registration) where they will receive all eventual communication regarding the admission procedure. Applicants must use this address to send emails to any University office. To ensure the protection of the applicants' privacy, the University administrative offices will not be able to reply to emails sent by accounts other than name.surname@studio.unibo.it.
2. Select "Admission application" and follow the online procedure;
3. Fill in the first part of the application form, in order to access to the attachments upload section (candidates are allowed to access to their application several times, to complete or modify it, up to the submission);
4. Upload the required documents, as detailed in the table below, exclusively in .pdf format. Applicants will not be able to upload any supporting document after the deadline of this call; after providing all the required information and documents the application will show the status "Application filled in: You can submit the application";
5. To finalize the application, select "Submit". Any application not submitted by the deadline will be rejected. After submission, the application will show the status "Application submitted: Your application has been successfully submitted". No communication will be sent to applicants about the successful submission of their application.

After the deadline, all the submitted applications will be forwarded to the Admission Board, and the status will change to "Application checked".

To be valid and eligible, all applications must be filled in and submitted following exclusively the instructions detailed in this article.

3.2 Required documents

a)	Scanned valid ID with photograph	Both sides
b)	Curriculum Vitae	Applicants are invited to check the PhD Programme Tables if a specific format is required

Applicants obtaining 60/100 points will be shortlisted.

Art. 5 – ADMISSION BOARDS

Details about the Admission Board members are available on the University website of the specific PhD programme (select the PhD programme → “More Information” and then click on “Admission Board” tab”).

Art. 6 – FINAL RANKING LIST

After the publication of the results of the evaluation of qualifications and the research proposal, a final ranking list for each PhD programme will be published through a Rector’s Decree on the University website (select the PhD programme → “More Information” and check the “Notices” section at the bottom of the page).

The ranking lists of each PhD Programme, specific for each Action (Action IV.4 “PhD programmes on Innovation” or Action IV.5 “PhD programmes on Green related topics”) will include the applicants obtaining 60/100 or more points. Scholarships will be assigned on the basis of the Action-related ranking list drafted according to each research topic in the call for applications.

In case two or more applicants have the same final score, the assessment of applicants’ economic situation will be the criterion to choose the successful one.

In case of no eligible applicant for a specific topic position or if a successful applicant withdraws, with or without notice, from a position, the following applicant in the Action-related ranking list (Action IV.4– “PhD Programmes on Innovation” or Action IV.5 “PhD Programmes on Green related topics”), who is also eligible for the specific position, may be contacted.

In order to fill all the openings, the replacement procedure will continue until the date indicated on the University website.

It is not possible to carry out a PhD project in the same research field (i.e. “Settore Scientifico Disciplinare”) of a previous PhD programme. The Academic Board will assess each case at the beginning of the programme.

Art. 7 - ENROLMENT

7.1 Enrolment procedure

Successful applicants must enrol on Studenti Online before the deadline indicated in University website along with the publication of the Final Ranking list (select the PhD programme → “More information”).

In order to enrol, applicants shall:

2. Click on “Admission application” and follow the procedure;
3. Print the .pdf document, which contains the forms indicated at the following point 6 (c, d, e, and f of the present article), fill it in and sign it;
4. Click on “Fee situation - Enrolment”;
5. Pay the enrolment tax online through the PagoPA system, according to the Italian Law;
6. Before the enrolment deadline, send to aform.udottricerca@unibo.it, using your email name.surname@studio.unibo.it, in attachment the following scanned documents:
 - a) Valid ID or passport (both sides);
 - b) Payment receipt;
 - c) Enrolment Form filled and signed;
 - d) Intellectual property rights and confidentiality protection on research results self-certification;
 - e) Information on “how to use your institutional e-mail boxes”;
 - f) Scholarship forms;
 - g) Scholarship acceptance form, in compliance with M.D. 1061/2021
 - h) (for non-Italian citizens only) Tax code issued by the Italian Revenue Agency (Agenzia delle Entrate). For applicants who does not hold a tax code at the moment of the enrolment, they can request for it once arrived to Italy and send a scanned copy of it afterwards, before the start date of the PhD Programme, following the instructions provided in the University website.

Enrolments and payments carried out in ways that differ from the ones indicated above will not be accepted.

At the moment of the enrolment, those who are yet to obtain a second cycle degree (see art. 2), after the completion of their studies and before October 31st, 2021, have to send to aform.udottricerca@unibo.it the following documents:

- a) Self-certification (or official certification, if the degree has been obtained either in EU, except for Italy, or non-EU countries, or if the degree has been awarded by an Italian Private University). The document must indicate: University Name, graduation date, type of degree (in Italy specialistica/magistrale, magistrale a ciclo unico, vecchio ordinamento or an equivalent second cycle degree as specified in art. 2) and final mark;
- b) Scanned copy of a Valid ID with photo.

When the enrolment is complete, PhD candidates will receive an email to their account name.surname@studio.unibo.it with a QR code and the instructions to print their University ID card in one of the self-service printing stations of the University.

7.2 Replacement positions enrolments

In case of replacement, the eligible applicants next in line will receive a communication to their email name.surname@studio.unibo.it, with the deadline for their enrolment. The latter must be carried out as indicated in paragraph 7.1.

The above-mentioned applicants must complete the enrolment process within the deadline specified in the email, otherwise, the replacement procedure will continue, and the next eligible applicant will be contacted.

7.3 Information for applicants who require a VISA

After the completion of the University enrolment process, the applicants who require a VISA to stay in Italy must register on University website and carry out the “pre-enrolment” to the PhD programme, following the indicated procedure to obtain the VISA.

Moreover, on their arrival to Italy, applicants who have obtained a funded position must send to aform.udottricerca@unibo.it a scanned copy of the following documents:

- a) Valid Permit of Stay. Those who are not in possession of this document must apply for it within 8 days from their arrival to Italy. For more information, please follow the instructions on the University website. Applicants must send the receipt issued by the Questura at the moment of the request of the Permit of Stay;
- b) Italian Tax Code issued by Italian Revenue Agency (Agenzia delle Entrate). Those who need to apply for an Italian Tax Code should follow the instructions on the University website.

7.4 Information for applicants with a non-Italian degree

After the enrolment, within two months from the arrival to Italy, PhD candidates with a degree issued by non-EU institutions must provide the following documents in their original version:

- a) Second cycle degree certification and Transcript of Records, with the official translation in one of the following languages: Italian, English, French, German and Spanish;
- b) Documents attesting the validity of the qualification awarded (e. g. Diploma Supplement, Declaration of Value-Dichiarazione di Valore in loco of the second cycle degree issued by Italian Diplomatic authorities located in the country in which the qualification was awarded, recognition of foreign qualifications carried out by agencies like the ones of ENIC_NARIC networks). For more information, please check the University website.

The University reserves the right to request the documents attesting the validity of the awarded qualifications also for those issued in EU countries.

The suitability of non-Italian degrees is established by the University, following the legislation into force both in Italy and in the Country where the qualification has been awarded, and under the relevant international treaties or agreements dealing with the recognition of academic qualifications for access to further studies.

Applicants holding a non-Italian degree, who do not show the requested documents upon enrolment, are enrolled with condition. They will be excluded from the PhD programme and required to refund any scholarship or funding already received, if they do not provide the original documents or if, on the basis of the evaluation carried out, the qualification provided does not meet the admission requirements referred to in art. 2.

Art. 8 – TUITION FEES

PhD candidates must pay the tuition fees for the enrolment for each academic year.

The total amount of the tuition fees includes insurance premium, stamp duty and the regional tax for the right to higher education.

The amount of the tuition fees for the A.Y. 2021/2022 corresponds to 157.04 euros.

The tuition fees cannot be reimbursed under any circumstances

Art. 9 - PHD POSITIONS AND SCHOLARSHIPS

9.1 Positions and scholarships assignment

The PhD Programme Tables, which complement this Call for Applications, provide the number of the scholarships available for each PhD programme.

PhD applicants that have already received a scholarship for the attendance of a PhD programme in Italy, cannot receive a scholarship again.

In case a scholarship is awarded, the applicant accepts to carry out a research period in a private company (minimum 6 months, maximum 12, as indicated in the relevant PhD programme tables). Failing to comply with this requirement, shall result in the withdrawal of the scholarship.

In compliance with M.D. 1061/2021, applicants must prepare a report of their activity, on a bi-monthly basis.

In case of scholarship's withdrawal, in compliance with M.D. n. 1061 – Annex concerning the Policy guidelines and especially in case of:

- diverging from the originally approved project, whether a change was not requested and authorized by MUR;
- failure to complete the PhD programme (three-year duration), to carry out the minimum mandatory period of study and research in a company and the minimum period abroad, if requested;
- non-admission to the following year of the PhD programme after a negative evaluation of the research by the Academic Board;
- withdrawal from the PhD programme

the University of Bologna may claim the refund of the already paid scholarship's instalments.

No positions without scholarship are available.

The scholarship is not compatible with research grants and other scholarships, except for scholarships awarded by national or international bodies for a research period abroad. In case an applicant has received in the past a PhD scholarship, even partially, they cannot receive a scholarship again.

9.2 Scholarship payment

Scholarships are paid to PhD candidates on a monthly basis (payment is usually processed on the 25th day of the month).

The yearly gross amount of the scholarships is 15,343.28 euros.

The yearly gross amount of the scholarships awarded for the PhD programme in "Law, Science and Technology", is 17,500 euros (gross amount including the taxes incurred by the recipient).

The total amount of the scholarship will increase of 30% for periods of research abroad (if any).

Please note that for PhD candidates with a scholarship, the registration to the Social Security Administration (Gestione separata INPS) is mandatory. The scholarships are subject to the payment of the INPS social security contribution according to the relevant legislation into force. Such a contribution is paid as follows: two-thirds paid by the University and one-third paid by the scholarship holder. PhD candidates have the related rights and safeguards.

The payment of the scholarship will be carried out after the PhD candidate has duly entered their bank account details (e.g. IBAN code) on Studenti Online (section "Modify contact details"). The scholarship payment can be made also on foreign bank accounts. The IBAN code will be used by the University for the payment of the scholarship (the PhD candidate must be the holder of the bank account or, as an alternative, they must be the co-holder).

The rules regarding the impossibility to combine the PhD scholarships with other funding is governed by Art. 17 of the PhD Programme Regulation of the University of Bologna.

Art. 10 – COMPATIBILITY AND INCOMPATIBILITY

Attending a PhD programme implies a full-time and exclusive commitment for PhD candidates.

More information on PhD programme attendance and the related compatibility/incompatibility rules are disciplined by art. 16 and 17 of the PhD Programme Regulation.

Art. 11 – OWNERSHIP OF RESULTS AND CONFIDENTIALITY

Intellectual and industrial property rights over any result achieved by PhD candidates (e.g. including software, industrial inventions - whether patentable or not - know-how, models, data and data collections, etc.) are disciplined by the relevant National Legislation into force, the University internal regulations, and other agreements signed between the University and third parties if any.

PhD candidates are always required to communicate immediately to the PhD programme Coordinator any accomplishment, by committing themselves not to disclose any result nor use without an explicit prior authorization from the University.

Equally, PhD candidates must sign a confidentiality agreement including any information, data, and confidential documentation that may come to their attention throughout all the activities performed at the University or on behalf of the University itself.

In any case, PhD candidates are allowed to ordinary publishing activities, consistently with their training programme expectations. Those publications will have to be programmed in a way which ensures the protection of the related research results as well.

ART. 12 – PROCESSING OF PERSONAL DATA

In accordance with art. 13 of the EU Regulation 2016/679, the processing of the personal data provided by the applicants, participating to the selection procedure, or acquired for this purpose, by the University aims to carry out only the activities of the selection procedure. Data will be managed by the people in charge of the selection procedure, including the Admission Boards, in the manner and within the limits necessary to achieve the above-mentioned purposes, which may also be communicated to third parties.

The University will keep and use the personal data and contacts provided by the PhD candidates enrolled to the University, also after the completion of the selection procedures, for operational, administrative, accounting and/or other purposes related to the management of institutional activities and legal obligations, as well as for the disclosure of any opportunities to the successful applicants (scholarships, awards, etc.).

Applicants have the right to access their personal data, to request amendments, elimination, limitation of treatment, as well as to object to the processing of the above-mentioned data by addressing their requests to privacy@unibo.it.

Those who believe that the processing of their personal data is in violation of the provisions of the Regulation mentioned above may lodge a complaint to the Authority for data processing (in Italian Garante) or refer to the competent court.

The data holder is Alma Mater Studiorum - University of Bologna (registered office: via Zamboni n. 33, 40126 - Bologna, Italy; e-mail: privacy@unibo.it; PEC: scriviunibo@pec.unibo.it).

The contact details of the Personal Data Protection Officer are: registered office, via Zamboni n. 33, 40126 - Bologna, Italy; e-mail: dpo@unibo.it; PEC: scriviunibo@pec.unibo.it.

For further information, please consult the information available on the University website.

Art. 13 - LEGAL FRAMEWORK CONCERNING DOCTORAL STUDIES

The PhD Programme Regulation, issued by Rector's Decree No. 1468/2016 of the 05/12/2016, governs matters other than those covered by the present Call for applications.

By applying for the admission to a PhD programme at the University of Bologna through the online procedure referred to in art. 3, applicants tacitly agree to be subject to both the rules of the present Call and the PhD Programme Regulation.

Responsible for the present administrative procedure

Daniela Taccone – AFORM – Education and PhD Administrative Division (e-mail: aform.udottricerca@unibo.it; PEC: scriviunibo@pec.unibo.it).
