

Alizée DAUCHY

PhD in Political Science, University Saint-Louis – Brussels
Institute of European Studies (IEE), CReSPo (Centre de Recherche en Science Politique)

Research visiting scholar at LPED (Laboratoire Population-Environnement-Développement), French National Research Institute for Sustainable Development (IRD), Marseille (2022-2023)

Coordination team of POMAF (African migration policies), <https://pomaf.hypotheses.org/>
Board membre of the Euro-African network Migreurop, <https://migreurop.org/>

Fellow IC Migrations

+33 6 49 56 94 06

alizeedauchy@gmail.com

ONGOING PROJECTS

- Since Septembre 2023 : Contractual Professor at INALCO (Paris)
- 2017 – 2023: PhD thesis entitled: “Inventing transit: criminalisation of foreigners and ‘migration work’ in Niger. The role of Nigerien actors in the externalization of European migration policies” (defended on the 3rd of July 2023)
- Co-coordination of a thematic dossier entitled "In the manufacture of mobility regimes in Africa", Revue Européenne des Migrations Internationales (REMI), Vol.4, n°4, 2024
- POMAF workshop (African migration policies) in partnership with LISST-LPED (IRD), LMI MOVIDA and Institute Convergences Migrations (ICM), 2022- 2023
 - co-organisation of 4 seminars a year
 - selection of participants
 - moderating
- Co-coordination of chapter 5 "Regional areas of freedom of movement", in Atlas des migrations dans le monde : liberté de circulation, frontières et inégalités, Migreurop, Armand Colin, 2022 :
 - coordination of meetings, editorial and cartographic selection and follow-up
 - proofreading of papers
 - public presentation of the book

PUBLICATIONS

- "Dreaming biometrics: the security techniques of migration control in West Africa ", Security Dialogue, 2023
<https://doi.org/10.1177/09670106231158893>
- "L'authentification biométrique dans la Cedeao, un atout pour la libre circulation ? ", in Atlas des migrations dans le monde: liberté de circulation, frontières et inégalités Migreurop, Armand Colin, 2022
- "Les arrestations de passeurs au Niger : les faux-semblants d'une criminalisation des personnes en migration", Métropolitiques
<https://metropolitiques.eu/Les-arrestations-de-passeurs-au-Niger-une-criminalisation-des-pratiques-d.html>
- "La loi contre le trafic illicite de migrant·es au Niger : état des lieux d'un assemblage judiciaire et sécuritaire à l'épreuve de la mobilité transnationale", Anthropologie & développement - Vol. 51, 2020
<https://pul.uclouvain.be/book/?GCOI=29303100774180>
- "Des trajectoires immobilisées: protection et criminalisation des migrations au Niger", Human Rights League, Chronique n°190, March 2020
https://www.liguedh.be/wp-content/uploads/2020/04/Chronique_LDH_190_voies-sures-et-legales.pdf
- "IOM takes control of Niger's borders", Migreurop Brief Note n°9, May 2019
https://migreurop.org/IMG/pdf/note_9_en_print_def.pdf
- "Le camp : une infrastructure européenne ?", Critical review of the publication "De Lesbos à Calais : comment l'Europe fabrique des camps", Bouagga Y. (ed.), social science review Émulations, Louvain-La-Neuve, 2018;
<https://ojs.uclouvain.be/index.php/emulations/article/view/7483>
- "Une figure de l'étranger pour construire un imaginaire collectif en Méditerranée? ", with Annalisa Lendaro, La Revue Nouvelle, 2017/1 (N° 1), p. 50-53.
<https://www.cairn.info/revue-nouvelle-2017-1-page-50.html>
- "Garantir le droit à la scolarité des mineurs étrangers : une scolarité à double vitesse ?" Revue Éduquer, Ligue de l'Enseignement et de l'Éducation permanente, no.117, Brussels,2015;
<http://ligue-enseignement.be/assets/Eduquer-117.pdf>
- "EU-Tunisia Mobility Partnership: Externalisation policy in disguise", Euro-Mediterranean Human Rights Network, Copenhagen, 2014.
<https://euromedrights.org/publication/eu-tunisia-mobility-partnership-externalisation-policy-in-disguise/>

CONFERENCES AND PARTICIPATION IN ACADEMIC EVENTS

- "Dreaming biometrics in Niger", SOAS Hybrid Workshop: De-centring and Contesting Externalization in West Africa and Beyond, Septembre 2022;
- "The construction of Migration policies", international conference, September 2021, Iméra, Marseille (co-organiser):
 - Selection of papers and reviewing
 - Introduction with Jean-Pierre Cassarini (College of Europe), Delphine Perrin (IRD) and Camille Cassarino (IRD);
- "Recent trends in border externalization in Niger", organized by Border Forensics (Charles Heller & Lorenzo Pezzani) and the Human Rights Project at Bard College, July 2021;
- Presentation of field research at GERMES (Groupe of Research Migration and Society), University Abdou Moumouni, Niamey, February 2020;
- "Les usages sécuritaires de l'Europe dans la lutte contre l'immigration irrégulière au Niger" Conference paper with selection committee, 15th AFSP conference, Bordeaux, July 2019;
- "The Emergency Transit Mechanism Libya-Niger: an instrument of delocalised control of migration?", Summer School at CHERPA, Aix-en-Provence, June 2019;
- "EU security enforcement in Niger: Immigration as a Trojan horse? ", paper presented at "Walls and Wars. Identifying and questioning the military in contemporary border security policies" conference, Brussels, April 2019;
- 8th Congress of the Association Belge Francophone de Science Politique (ABSP), Université Saint-Louis Brussels, December 2019:
 - coordination of meetings, operational follow-up, selection of participants;
- "EU-Niger partnership: discussing EU's externalization of migration control from actants lens", Border Region In Transition (BRIT), University of Ibadan, Nigeria October 2018;
- "Europe: The end of the spectacle", 10th anniversary of the Institute of European Studies – University Saint-Louis – Brussels, 22 February 2018;
- "Luttes de l'immigration, luttes antiracistes: Penser, diffuser, combattre, mobiliser", LiLar Conference, Université Paris Diderot, 18–19 Septembre 2015;
- "Multiple Memories: Cultural Memory of Migration", Future Academy, Duisburg, 5–6 December 2014.

FIELDWORK

- June – Novembre 2018/February – March 2020, Niger: 95 interviews with senior civil servants, members of the Defence and Security Forces (FDS), judges, civil society actors and international organisations; people arrested for smuggling migrants in Niamey, Agadez and Zinder; participant observations in the offices of the Technical and Scientific Police (PTS), at borders and in bus stations
- April 2018 / December 2019, Brussels and Paris: interviews with European Commission officials in Brussels and heads of programmes at the Civipol agency in Paris
- June – December 2012, Lampedusa (Italy): interviews with associations involved in welcoming migrants, police officers from the Frontex agency and coastguards
- October 2011, Greece: interviews with migrants and police officers; observations in the Evros region

TEACHING INTERVENTION

- January – April 2023: Comparative Border Security course, International Relation Degree (BIRD), Institut d'Études Politiques (IEP), Bordeaux
- Academic year 2022 – 2023: Supervision of a dissertation entitled "Rebuilding trust: the future of the European Migration and Asylum system", Master in International Relations 4A BIRD IEP Bordeaux and LUISS University
- Academic year 2019 – 2020: Supervision of a dissertation entitled "L'union européenne et l'Afrique à l'épreuve de la gestion externe des flux migratoires irréguliers", Master in European Studies, Université Saint-Louis – Brussels
- Octobre –Decembre 2019: Teaching assignments for the Master's degree in European Studies: course on the analysis of public action and TD on 'Lobbying in the EU decision making process', Université Saint-Louis – Brussels

EDUCATION

- 2015: University Degree for teaching French to foreigners, University of Grenoble (distance learning)
- 2009 – 2011 : Master I and II in Political Science, International Relations "Global Gouvernance", Distinction, Grade Université Libre de Bruxelles, ULB, Belgium
La politique migratoire de l'Union Européenne : le mur comme instrument de lutte contre l'immigration clandestine
- 2008 – 2009 : Erasmus in Political Science at Pompeu Fabra, Barcelona, Spain
- 2006 – 2008 : Bachelor in Political Science at Université Libre de Bruxelles, ULB, Belgium
- 2006: Baccalaureate in Social and Economic Sciences, Bordeaux, France

LANGUAGES

French (Mother tongue)

English and Italian (C1: autonomous level)

Spanish (B2: advanced level)

Dutch, German and Arab (A: introductory level)

OTHER PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCES

- June – July 2016: Human Rights League – Consultant, Brussels, Belgium
- May 2015 November 2016: Permanent Education League – French teacher to foreigners, Brussels, Belgium
- September 2012, October 2013, August 2014: Consultant for documentary film “Between borders in Africa”, Matrioska Film Production (Brazil)
- August 2013 – February 2014: Internship at NGO Euro-Med Rights, Copenhagen, Denmark
- Decembre 2011– June 2012: Internship at GISTI (Groupe d’Information et de Soutien des Immigrés) association, Paris, France