Acerca de

Cultural manager and economist with 4 years of experience in coordinating international multistakeholders projects related to international cultural cooperation, cultural entrepreneurship, the creative and cultural industries.

Art production / Research on cultural entrepreneurship / Management of public funding.

I can add value to your organization by:

- Taking care of the different dimensions of your projects (logistic, research, communication, administration, funding).
- Managing stakeholders: I fluently speak five languages and possess strong communication skills developed through 10 years of studying / working within international teams around Italy, Portugal, Morocco, Belgium and Spain.

Feel free to contact me for challenging opportunities & collaborations!
