

CURRICULUM VITAE

Edward Dąbrowa

Formation:

Uniwersytet Jagielloński, MA 1972 (in History)

Uniwersytet Jagielloński, Ph.D. 1977 (in History)

Uniwersytet Jagielloński, habilitation 1983

Uniwersytet Jagielloński, professor 1999

Functions and positions:

1972 – 1988 Assistant, Uniwersytet Jagielloński

1988 – 1992 Associate professor, Uniwersytet Jagielloński

1988 – 1991 Vice-director, Institute of History, Uniwersytet Jagielloński

1992 – 1994 - Professor extraordinarius, Uniwersytet Jagielloński

1996 – 2002 Vice-dean, Faculty of History, Uniwersytet Jagielloński

1999 until today – Full Professor of Ancient History , Uniwersytet Jagielloński

2000-2012 – Head of Department of Jewish Studies, Uniwersytet Jagielloński

1986 until today – Head of Chair of Ancient History, Uniwersytet Jagielloński

2012-2016 Director of the Institute of Jewish Studies, Uniwersytet Jagielloński

Grants/Fellowships:

1991/1992 - Institute for Advanced Study, The School of Historical Studies, Princeton
(10 months) - assistant to Prof. G.W. Bowersock

1993 - Maison de l'Orient Méditerranéen, Lyon (3 months), Program Tempora

1995 - American Academy in Rome, Rome (3 months), Fellowship of the A. Mellon Foundation

1998 - University of Cologne (2 months), Fellowship of DAAD

1999 - University of Nice (2 months), visiting professor

2002 - The Albright Institute of Archaeological Research, Jerusalem (2 months),
Fellowship of the A. Mellon Foundation

2006/2007 - The Netherlands Institute for Advanced Study in the Humanities and Social Sciences, Wassenaar (10 months), Fellowship of the Royal Netherlands
Academy of Arts and Sciences

International academic honors: President of the European Association for Jewish Studies
(Oxford) for 2014-2018