

Curriculum Vitae of Dr T.S. Brown, M.A., Ph.D., F.R.Hist.Soc.

Full Name: Thomas Sutherland Brown (British citizen)

Date of birth: [REDACTED]

University degrees awarded:

M.A. Honours in History, University of Edinburgh, July 1970

Ph.D., University of Nottingham, July 1976

Research and Teaching Career:

Ph.D. research in Nottingham 1970-71 (Supervisor: Professor Donald Bullough)

Holder of Exchange Fellowship at Collegio Ghislieri, University of Pavia, Italy
(continuing Ph.D. research): 1971-2

Research in libraries and archives in Rome and other Italian cities as holder of award from British School at Rome 1972-73

Junior Research Fellow in Byzantine Studies, Dumbarton Oaks, Washington
D.C., 1973-75

Tutor in History, Universities of Edinburgh, Glasgow and St Andrews 1975-76

Editor in Publishing Firm (Variorum, London) August - November 1978

University Research Fellow, School of History, University of Birmingham,
December 1976 - May 1978

Lecturing Fellow in Medieval Studies, Australian National University,
Canberra, June 1978 - September 1980

Appointed Lecturer in Medieval History, University of Edinburgh: 1 October 1980

Promoted to Senior Lecturer: 1 October 1991

Promoted to Reader 1 October 1996

Retired: 31st August 2016

Present Position: Honorary Fellow in Medieval History, School of History, Classics and Archaeology, University of Edinburgh

Member of numerous academic societies, including Royal Historical Society,
Ecclesiastical History Society and Society for the Promotion of Byzantine Studies

Other academic achievements: Founding Editor of journal Early Medieval Europe.

Extensive publications. List can be supplied on request.