Documentary Films (Director)

- 2020 Olha’s Italian Diary (50’) – The film is an intimate sneak-peek into one of the contemporary taboo topics: personal lives of the female migrants away from home.

- 2015 Road of a migrant (52’) - Besides migration, the film speaks of the controversial rise of the Church institution in a post-soviet state, as a force preoccupied not only with the spiritual, but also with the social and the political.
