Dr. Matthieu Burnay

Summary

Dr Matthieu Burnay is a Senior Lecturer (Associate Professor) in Global Law at Queen Mary University of London. In 2022-23, he is also a Visiting Professor at Beijing Normal University, Global Law Visiting Professor at the University of Leuven, as well as an Associate Researcher at the Leuven Centre for Global Governance Studies, University of Leuven. He has an interdisciplinary background in law, political science and history. He holds a PhD in Law from the University of Leuven and a Double MSc degree in International Affairs from Peking University and the London School of Economics.

At Queen Mary School of Law, Dr Burnay serves as Co-Director International, Co-Director of the Centre for European and International Legal Affairs, as well as Academic Lead for the Double Degree in English and French Law. He teaches the undergraduate courses 'Law and Globalisation', 'Global Law and Governance', and 'Chinese Law and Institutions'.

His main research interests are in global law and governance; the study of the political and legal aspects of EU-China relations in global governance; as well as the comparative study of the rule of law in Europe and Asia. His main areas of expertise relate to the study of the law and politics of contemporary China, their interface with international law, and implications for human rights and the rule of law. He has also conducted extensive research on EU-China legal and judicial cooperation in both economic and criminal matters. He has published widely on these issues including a monograph 'Chinese Perspectives on the International Rule of Law; Law and Politics in the One-Party State' (Edward Elgar, 2018). In 2018, he was awarded a Jean Monnet Network on EU-China Legal and Judicial Cooperation (EUPLANT).

He has been consulted on China-related issues by the European Parliament, the European Council, the EU Committee of the Regions, the UK Cabinet Office, the Belgian Ministry of Justice, as well as national courts. In 2014, he received a Scientific Prize Gustave Boël - Sofina Fellowship from the King Baudouin Foundation.
