

Curriculum Vitae: Prof. Sharon O'Brien

Personal Details:

Name Sharon O'Brien
Rank Professor of Translation Studies

Academic Qualifications:

- Ph.D. "Machine Translatability and Post-Editing Effort: An Empirical Study Using Translog and Choice Network Analysis", Dublin City University (2006)
 - MA by research – "Sublanguage, Text Type and Machine Translation", Dublin City University (1993)
 - BA (hons.) in Applied Language and Intercultural Studies, Translation Studies with French & German, Dublin City University (1991)
-

Employment experience:

2019-present: Dublin City University

- Professor in Translation Studies; Associate Dean for Research (from July 2020)

2014-present: Dublin City University

- Associate Professor in Translation Studies, with responsibility for teaching and researching translation technology, research methods, localisation and translation practice at undergraduate but mostly masters' level

2007-2014: Dublin City University

- Assistant Professor in Translation Studies, with responsibility for teaching translation technology, research methods, localisation, translation practice, translation theory at undergraduate but mostly masters' level

Jan. 1998-Dec.1999

- Language Technology Consultant in Alpnet (acquired by SDL)

1995-1998

- Language Technology Consultant in International Translation & Publishing (acquired by SDL)
-

Academic Awards

2020 Recipient of the "President's Research Award", DCU
2003 Irish Research Council 4-year PhD Scholarship
1993 Austrian Government Scholarship for one year's study at University of Vienna