

DR. DANIELA ARRESE
(OMISSIS)
E-Mail: (OMISSIS) – Tel.: (OMISSIS)

UNIVERSITY EDUCATION

Heidelberg University School of Law, Heidelberg, Germany (January 2013 – July 2021)

PhD thesis ‘The Autonomy of Maritime Spaces’, Magna Cum Laude

Supervision by Prof. Dr. Dr. h.c. Rüdiger Wolfrum

Honors: Becas Chile Fellowship, IMPRS Scholarship

Columbia University School of Law, New York, NY (August 2010 – May 2011)

LL.M., Parker School Certificate (specialization in international law)

Honors: Fulbright Scholar, Becas Chile Fellowship

Universidad de Chile School of Law, Santiago, Chile (September 2000 – December 2004)

LL.B., summa cum laude

Honors: Linkage Program, Yale Law School, February 2004

LL.B. thesis: “The Chilean Model of Investment Agreements”

WORK EXPERIENCE

Max Planck Foundation for International Peace and the Rule of Law (April 2018 – today)

Senior Research Fellow Chile Project and Sri Lanka Project

Worked as advisor to the bodies involved in Chile’s first and second constitutional-making processes. Organised seminars. Conducted research and prepared manuals on topics ranging from comparative constitutional law to the law of the sea, and international law. Worked in the preparation of comprehensive baseline study on the domestic legislation of Indian Ocean Countries implementing the UN Law of the Sea Convention. Organized workshops, seminars, and online activities. Travelled overseas to implement project.

Chilean Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Santiago, Chile (August 2012 – December 2012)

Legal Advisor

Worked at the Agency for the Defense of the Republic of Chile before the International Court of Justice in Maritime Dispute (Peru v. Chile); assisted in the preparation of oral proceedings before the Court; reviewed and corrected pleadings; attended hearing in The Hague; worked with Agent on the preparation of opening and closing speeches.

Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer LLP, Paris, France (September 2011 – February 2012)

Legal Consultant

Worked on investment and commercial arbitrations (ICSID case in the oil and gas industry, commercial case involving a multi-million engineering, procurement, and construction contract related to a coal-fired power plant); drafted pleadings and memoranda on complex issues of international law, national law, and international arbitration; had direct client contact, ranging from daily communications to overseas business trip.

Chilean Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Santiago, Chile (September 2009 – April 2010)

Junior Legal Advisor

Worked at the Agency for the Defense of the Republic of Chile before the International Court of Justice in Maritime Dispute (Peru v. Chile); conducted research on topics related to the law of the sea and compiled evidence in support of defense.

Adolfo Ibanez University School of Law, Santiago, Chile (August 2009 – December 2009)

Adjunct Professor

Taught 6 credits course on contracts.

Bofill Mir & Alvarez Jana, Santiago, Chile (October 2006 – August 2009)

Associate

Researched and drafted briefs on various issues regarding international law, international environmental law, and international investment law; worked on several ICSID and UNCITRAL cases involving mining concessions, administrative law, environmental law, management of natural resources, and fishing rights in internal and territorial waters; advised the Chilean Government on the application of international environmental conventions and the implementation of the OECD Codes of Liberalisation.

Alvarez Hinzpeter Jana & Valle, Santiago, Chile (June 2004 – January 2005)

Legal Assistant

Conducted research on topics related to international investment law; compiled evidence in preparation for two ICSID arbitrations.

International Court of Justice, The Hague, the Netherlands (October 2007 – December 2007)

Legal Intern

Assisted the Registrar of the Court: studied submissions and evidence of pending cases before the Court; attended hearings; compiled press reports.

SPECIALIZED TRAINING ON LAW OF THE SEA

London International Boundary Conference, London, United Kingdom, December 2015

Workshop on Mineral Resources beyond Oil and Gas and their Significance for Coastal States' Maritime Boundaries

Annual Conference of the Center for Ocean Law and Policy: "Challenges of the Changing Arctic: Continental Shelf, Navigation, and Fisheries", Bergen, Norway, June 2014

Eighteenth Rhodes Academy of Oceans Law and Policy, Rhodes, Greece, July 2013
Honors: Rhodes Academy Scholarship

London International Boundary Conference, London, United Kingdom, Workshop on Maritime Delimitation, April 2013

International Boundary Research Unit (IBRU), Durham University, United Kingdom, Workshop on Boundary Dispute Resolution, April 2010

University of Cambridge online, “Climate Change for Decision-Makers: Challenges, Transformations, Strategies”, April-June 2023

PUBLICATIONS

‘Gulf of Fonseca’, in Rüdiger Wolfrum, ed., Max Planck Encyclopedia of Public International Law, online version, www.mpepil.com (last updated in January 2013)

‘The Bay of Bengal Maritime Boundary Arbitration (Bangladesh and India)’, in Rüdiger Wolfrum, ed., Max Planck Encyclopedia of Public International Law, online version, www.mpepil.com (last updated in November 2014)

‘The Right of Political Participation of Indigenous Peoples and the UN Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples’, in Max Planck Yearbook of United Nations Law, Volume 23 (2019)

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Languages: Spanish (native), English (fluent), German (fluent), French (working knowledge)

Bar admission: Chile, July 2009

Conference Organization: Member of the Program Committee of the 2015 Annual Meeting of the American Society of International Law (ASIL). Organized Panels on Energy at Sea and on Wildlife Protection.