

Alberto Mussini - Nexia Audirevi ESG Managing Partner

Nexia Audirevi ESG Managing Partner

Skills cover the different areas and project needs: ESG strategy and sustainability plans - Sustainability reporting and reporting criteria (ESRS / GRI / IFRS S / SASB) – Sustainability governance - Business conduct - EU Taxonomy - Sustainable procurement & Supply chain - ESG Investor relations and corporate communication ESG - Sustainable finance & SFDR - BCorp & Benefit Corporations – Climate & Biodiversity – ESG audit & due diligence.

Professional experience at national and international level was acquired following a path started in consultancy (Deloitte). He subsequently held the role of CFO - Chief Financial Officer of listed multinational organizations, such as Tiscali and d'Amico Società di Navigazione, also developing responsibilities in the ESG field over time.

Degree in Economics - Chartered Accountant - Statutory Auditor.

He holds several institutional roles in the ESG field: Member of the Nexia International ESG core group, of the Assirevi Assurance Non-Financial Information Commission, member of the OIC (Italian Accounting Authority) Sustainability Reporting Working Group and of the Sustainability and Benefit Corporation Commission of the Order of Chartered Accountants and Accounting Experts of Bologna.

For 3 years he has been working as Managing Partner in the management of ESG audit assignments of the Supply Chain of the LVMH Maisons (Fendi, Louis Vuitton, Loro Piana), which to date has carried out 2,000+ audits.