

Jacopo Gonzi - ESG Partner (Value & Supply Chain services)

He deals with ESG issues and projects, with reference to ESG processes, policies, internal control systems and governance, ESG Risk & Opportunity (ERM - Enterprise Risk Management - integration of ESG risks and opportunities), Procurement (Policy & Supply chain monitoring / audit). He coordinates ESG Due Diligence assignments.

Graduated in economics (University of Milan Bicocca), he has a consolidated experience in consulting, also started as an auditor (Deloitte), continued in national boutiques, where he expanded his skills to internal control activities, risk management and corporate governance, internal audit assignments at large Italian listed companies in the manufacturing and services sectors.

He has gained experience in the fashion & luxury sector (Procurement policy – Supply chain ESG monitoring) and follows projects for international brands in the fashion & luxury sectors. Member of the Italian Association of Internal Auditors (AIIA).

For 3 years he has been working in the management of ESG audit assignments for the Supply Chain of Fashion Maisons (2,000+ audits carried out to date).