

VALERIA GRAZIANO

Short biography

Valeria Graziano is a cultural theorist and organizer. Her research is rooted in collective practice and centers on strategies of work refusal, militant conviviality and the politics of prefiguration. Her latest publications include Pirate Care: Acts Against the Criminalization of Solidarity (Pluto Press, 2025), co-authored with Marcell Mars and Tomislav Medak, and Figure It Out: The Art of Living Through System Failures (Drugo More, 2024), a reflection on illegalisms as tools for resistance.
