

Fizza Qureshi

Short Biography

Fizza Qureshi is the Chief Executive Officer of Migrants' Rights Network (MRN), a campaigning organisation working alongside migrants in their fight for rights and justice. She has a commitment to social justice, anti-racist and anti-oppression practices to ensure those affected are enabled to lead the changes needed.

Fizza pursued her academic journey in Biotechnology, and then later studied Human Rights and Social Change. Her passion for human rights and equity led her to embark on a career dedicated to social justice.

Beyond her CEO role, Fizza is a non-executive director on the board of Migrants at Work. She is also an honorary advisor for the Black Europeans.
