

Christxpher Oliver

Short biography

Christxpher Oliver is a writer and researcher. His work explores the process of designing research methods, forums, and archive collections as mediums to analyse post-colonial policy environments. This work generates forms of written, spoken, and audio-visual interventions as techniques for translating insights into various forms of pedagogical materials or actions. He studied Research Architecture and Politics, Philosophy and Economics at Goldsmiths, University of London. Oliver is currently Interim Programme Manager at the Ubele Initiative.