

JOY PHIRI

JOB RESEARCHER

SEX

NATIONALITY

CONTACT

EMAIL ADDRESS

EDUCATION BACKGROUND

| | |
|------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 2025- | Masters in History student, University of Zambia |
| 2017- 2021 | Bachelors of Arts in Education Degree in History and Civic Education (Social Sciences) University of Zambia. |
| 2010- 2014 | Secondary Level full certificate- St Mary's Secondary School, Livingstone. |

COMPETENCE

Excellent Communication skills

Good interpersonal skills

Analytical and problem-solving skills.

Personal Organisation.

EXPERIENCE

- 2025
- Researcher for the upcoming European Union and Zambia at 50 years Exhibition.
 - Conducts archival research from the National Archives of Zambia, National Assembly Library, UNIP archives and Zambia News and Information Services (ZANIS).
 - Conducted interviews with people of interest
- 2024
- Researcher for National Archives of Zambia Exhibition titled 60 years of Zambia's independence.
 - Researcher for Kolbold Mining Exhibition.
 - Researcher for Zamrock Exhibition showcased at the Stanbic Music Festival 2024.
- 2023- 2024
- Research Assistant for the project titled, A Socialist Workplace in Post-colonial Africa. A connected History of the Yugoslav workforce in Zambia under the University of Vienna and Southern African Institute for Policy and research (SAIPAR)
 - Conduct one on one interviews with people of interest.
 - Archival research in places of interest.
- 2022
- Census Enumerator at Zambia Statistics Agency.
 - Conducted household interviews using tablets (CAPI).

- Worked with minimal supervision and finished work on time.

2021

-Secondary Teacher/ Teaching Practice at St Paul's Secondary School.

-Prepared weekly reports on what was taught and challenges.

-Had to manage the classes taught by maintaining order.

REFERENCES

Mrs Chisengo P. Kakanwa

Director's Personal Secretary

Moto Moto Museum

Dr. Marja Hinfelaar

Director of Research and Programs

Southern African Institute for Policy and Research

Mr Goran Music

Main Researcher

University of Vienna