

Joanna Mary INNES

Employment:

2018- (honorary) Senior Research Fellow, Somerville College Oxford
 1983-2018 CUF lecturer in Modern History at the University of Oxford
 1982-2018 Tutor and Fellow in Modern History at Somerville College Oxford

Honours

2014 awarded title of ‘Professor of Modern History’

Publications:

Books:

Inferior Politics: Social Problems and Social Policies in Eighteenth-Century Britain (Oxford, 2009; published on-line 2011)

Edited books:

with Eduardo Posada and Mark Philp eds. Re-imagining Democracy in Latin America and the Caribbean 1780-1870 (New York, 2023) with Mark Philp eds., Re-imagining Democracy in the Mediterranean, 1780-1860 (Oxford, 2018) with Michael Braddick eds., Suffering and Happiness in Britain 1550-1850: essays to honour Paul Slack (OUP, July 2017)

ed. with Mark Philp, Re-imagining Democracy in the Age of Revolutions: America, France, Britain, Ireland 1750-1850 (Oxford, 2013) with A. Burns eds. Rethinking the Age of Reform: Britain 1780-1850 (Cambridge, 2003)

with H. Cunningham, Charity, Philanthropy and Reform in Europe and North America 1690-1850 (London, 1998)

Recent articles

‘Poverty, autonomy and control: Patrick Colquhoun’s Treatise on Indigence (1806)’, in Robin Mills and Niall O’Flaherty eds, Poverty and the enlightenment (2024)

‘The experience of ‘reform’ in English local governance in the era of the ‘Reform ministry’ (1830-41)’ in Judith Pollmann and Henk te Velde eds. Civic continuities in an age of revolutionary change (2023)

‘Seeing like a surveyor: imagining rural reform in the early nineteenth-century UK’, in Bruce Kinzer, Molly Kraemer and Richard Trainor eds. Reform and its complexities in modern Britain. Essays inspired by Sir Brian Harrison (2022)

‘Government without prefects: Did the UK offer an alternative model?’ in Pierre Karila-Cohen ed. Prefects and Governors in Nineteenth-Century Europe (2022)

‘The regulation of charity and the rise of the state’ in David Hitchcock and Julia McClure eds. History of Poverty in Europe 1450-1800 (2021)

‘Expanding the polis, transforming sovereignty’ in Michael Mosher and Anna Plassart eds, Cultural History of Democracy 1650-1800 (2021).