

Arber Gjeta

Since December 2012, he has been a lecturer in the Department of Law, Faculty of Economics, University of Elbasan, covering the subjects of Albanian Company Law, International Commercial Law, EU Law, EU Transport Law and The Substantive Law of the EU: 4 Freedoms.

Accredited as an external researcher in the Department of Legal Sciences "A. Cicu", University of Bologna (scientific collaboration with Prof. Stefano Zunarelli). The main field of study is focused on business law, studies on EU legislation and transport.

He is active with publications in academic and professional journals, as well as part of research groups. Part of editorial boards, scientific committees or reviewers for several scientific journals.

He graduated from the University of Bologna in 2009 with a result of 110/110 magna cum laude. He continued his academic career with doctoral studies in European Transport Law at the University of Bologna where he defended the thesis on "Le gestioni aeroportuali e dei servizi aeroportuali nel diritto europeo e nazionale". He spent a 6-month research period at the Institute of Air and Space Law, Leiden University, where he conducted research on cooperation and agreements between airline and airport operators and competition issues. The Albanian government program of Excellence Fund funded his doctoral studies.

He has been a lawyer since 2013 and currently exercises professional activity as a lawyer and consultant, mainly dealing with negotiation, sale and purchase of shares, restructuring procedures, bankruptcy proceedings, consulting, drafting of company acts, etc., as well as litigation.

Since September 2020, he has been Head of the Department of Law, Faculty of Economics, University of Elbasan. He holds a Chair Jean Monnet at the Department of Law, Faculty of Economics, University of Elbasan, in EU Enlargement and Acquis Adoption Burden: Albanian Challenges – EEAABAC.