

La Commissione, richiamando quindi il bando di concorso e le determinazioni precedentemente assunte in questa stessa adunanza, procede alla formulazione del tema che sarà oggetto della prova scritta e stabilisce la seguente traccia, costituita da due quesiti, più uno relativo all'accertamento della conoscenza delle applicazioni informatiche più diffuse:

A – You are assigned to a new international PhD programme and you are asked to support the coordinator in designing and organising activities to foster the international dimension of the programme. Describe the main actions planned to ensure a wider enrolment of international students, an adequate mobility rate and the attraction of visiting fellows

B – You are a programme coordinator who is supporting the design and the approval process of a new second cycle degree programme that will be delivered in English and will be characterised by a relevant international profile.

Draft a short note outlining the main steps required for the initial accreditation according to Italian national laws and guidelines (AVA system) focusing on the information relevant to highlight the international dimension

Please use Calibri 12pt, indent paragraphs, number the pages, insert bullet and/or numbered lists, use footnotes
