WORK EXPERIENCE

Postdoctoral Research Fellow (AGR01) 2024-present

University of Bologna - Department of Agrofood Sciences and Technology, Italy

- Improved my research skills by working with Prof. Antonella Samoggia on two European projects (LIKE-A-PRO and FEASTS) focussed on the protein transition.

Research Collaborator AGR01 2024-present

University of Gastronomic Sciences, Italy

- Improved my research skills by working with Prof. Lorenzo Bairati on the NODES project "CEFW – Circular Economy For Wine" on the importance of social sustainability for the development of the circular economy applied to the secondary Made in Italy wine agro-industry district.

Junior Research Fellow (AGR01) 2019-2020

University of Bologna - Department of Agrofood Sciences and Technology, Italy

- Improved my research skills by working with Prof. Antonella Samoggia on two H2020 projects (VALUMICS and FoodE).

In the context of the VALUMICS project the following activities were carried out: desk-based research on the Italian tomato value chain; exploration of consumers' attitudes towards environmental sustainability and fairness through focus groups; interviews with representatives of the different stakeholders of the Italian food chain; drafting of scenarios of sustainable production and consumption in the tomato supply chain in 2050.

In the context of the FoodE project the following activities were carried out: literature review on technology and urban agriculture issues in order to develop a mobile app that connects City Region Food System initiatives with local consumers; conceptualisation and writing of a project deliverable on the same topic; conceptualisation and data analysis of a questionnaire on mobile apps for local food consumption.

- Improved my analytical skills by peer reviewing scientific articles published in the British Food Journal, International Journal of Consumer Studies, Nutrients, Journal of International Food & Agribusiness Marketing, Frontiers in Nutrition.

- Improved my academic writing skills by taking part in the Winter School "The Road from Reviewer to Editor in Food Science and Agriculture Journals" organised by the University of Bologna.
