

Curriculum Vitae

Giuseppe Attisani

Medical Doctor – Specialist in Sports Medicine

Work experience

Since 2005 – Continuous professional activity as Sports Medicine Physician in public and private settings.

2016–2024: Permanent full-time Medical Director (Sports Medicine) at AUSL Romagna.

Since 2019: Corporate Medical Officer for Sports Medicine and Physical Activity Promotion.

Since 2024: Head of Departmental Simple Unit of Sports Medicine and Physical Activity Promotion, Department of Public Health – AUSL Romagna.

Member of the Emilia-Romagna Regional Anti-Doping Centre; FMSI Medical Inspector (DCO/BCO).

Education and training

Degree in Medicine and Surgery – Magna Græcia University of Catanzaro.

Specialisation in Sports Medicine – Magna Græcia University of Catanzaro (with honours).

PhD in Pharmaceutical Sciences – Magna Græcia University of Catanzaro.

Anti-Doping Advanced Training Course – Italian National Institute of Health.

Academic and teaching activity

Adjunct Professor at the University of Bologna in Sports Sciences,

Sports Management and Healthcare Assistance degree programmes.

Lecturer in Sports Medicine, Hygiene, Safety of Sports Facilities and Health Promotion.

Continuous university teaching activity since 2007.

Professional skills

Clinical sports medicine, functional assessment and certification for competitive sports.

Physical activity promotion and exercise prescription for prevention and treatment.

Public health, chronic disease prevention and adapted physical activity programmes.

Anti-doping activities and protection of athletes' health.