EDUCATION AND TRAINING

2020 - PRESENT

PHD CANDIDATE IN LAW, SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY (LAST-JD), ALMA MATER RESEARCH INSTITUTE IN HUMAN-CENTERED AI, UNIBO

Project title: “Deception in social robotics: problematic profiles of the human-robot interaction”.

The legal research in this field has the aim to analyse to what extent robotic deceptive behaviour can be acceptable, with the view to prioritise the protection of fundamental human rights, from a European perspective.

02/2020

MASTER’S DEGREE IN LAW, UNIVERSITÀ DEGLI STUDI DI PISA, PISA (ITALY)

Qualification: 110/110 con Lode (Summa cum Laude)

Thesis title: Robot sociali e interazione con l'uomo: il problema dell'inganno (Social robots and human interaction: the problem of deception)

31/10/2019

CONFERENCE “HUMAN-ROBOT INTERACTION BETWEEN TRUST AND DECEPTION”, JEAN MONNET CENTRE OF EXCELLENCE, PISA (ITALY)

Since 2019 I am cooperating with the Jean Monnet Centre of Excellence, where I collaborated in the organisation of the yearly conference in 2019. It was entirely dedicated to the implications of Human-Robot Interaction, with a specific focus on the meaning and the effects of deception and on the relevance of the theme of trustworthy AIs.

07/2019

SUMMER SCHOOL: “THE REGULATION OF ROBOTICS & AI IN EUROPE: LEGAL, ETHICAL AND ECONOMIC IMPLICATIONS”, SCUOLA SUPERIORE SANT’ANNA, PISA (ITALY)

During this Summer School I had the opportunity to address the theme of robotics and AI from a European perspective and a multidisciplinary point of view. In particular, I deepened my understanding of the legal, ethical, social and economic questions raised by new technologies. Moreover, I was provided with a solid background and methodological approach to: the technological and non-technological issues of robotic design, the research field of law and technology, the social and ethical implication of modern scientific development.

2016 - 2017

ERASMUS, SOUTHAMPTON SOLENT UNIVERSITY (LAW SCHOOL), SOUTHAMPTON (UK)

First semester (First grade): Law of Intellectual Property, Legal reasoning and research skills, Company Law;

Second semester (First grade): Commercial Law, Media Law, Aspects of International Law

WORK EXPERIENCE

06/2017 – 09/2017

PAID LEGAL PLACEMENT, PITMANS LLP LAW FIRM, SOUTHAMPTON (UK)

During this summer placement I learnt how to work both in a small team and independently and unsupervised in a role which required a high amount of responsibility. I have reviewed around three thousand legal documents and I have prepared them for external storage. I was responsible for creating and updating excel databases with information which had to be identified and abstracted from each document.

08/06/2017

POLL CLERK, SOUTHAMPTON CITY COUNCIL, SOUTHAMPTON (UK)

In this role my flexible attitude and attention to details were fundamental. Furthermore, it allowed me to improve my administration skills and to express my commitment to customer care.

2015 - 2016

REPORTER, ONLINE MAGAZINE TUTORED

This experience allowed me to improve my writing skills, accuracy and initiative. Moreover, I learnt how to work efficiently in a team in order to give our articles a homogeneous structure and presentation.
