PUBLICATIONS AND SPEECHES

The following contributions, published within the issues of the Military History review Arma Virumque – Rivista universitaria torinese di Storia Militare, do not yet dispose of a official recognition according to national (Italian) or international academic standards. Arma Virumque was born from a project run independently by young university scholars, which aims to promote historical scientific research, while at the same time proposing it in apt popularising. For this reason, it was decided to include in this section of the curriculum the contributions that have been realized to the project so far, in order to show its direction and potential as an innovative project that certainly detains a good potential for the next future.
